

CHITTARANJAN LOCOMOTIVE WORKS

PRESS RELEASE

CLW Celebrates International Women's Day 2024 with the Theme "Inspire Inclusion"

CHITTARANJAN;08.03.2024:- International Women's Day 2024 was celebrated in Chittaranjan Locomotive Works (CLW) at the Basanti Institute Hall on March 8, 2024, today. This year's theme, "Inspire Inclusion," reflects the vision of a world where everyone enjoys equal rights and respect.

The ceremony was inaugurated by Smt. Namita Malhotra, President / CLW Women Welfare Organization as Chief Guest & Shri Hitendra Malhotra, General Manager as President of the ceremony. The ceremony commenced with the lighting of the lamp, symbolizing the illumination of progress and equality.

Shri Amitabh Choudhary, Principal Chief Personnel Officer, Heads of Departments, senior officers, members of CLW Women Welfare Organization, women employees, and supervisors, graced the occasion. The program features with vibrant cultural programme organized by the women employees of CLW.

Smt. Namita Malhotra, President of CLW Women Welfare highlighted the indomitable spirit of women to achieve their goals in their life. She highlighted the importance of celebration of women's day & congratulated.

Addressing the gathering, Shri Hitendra Malhotra emphasized the significance of International Women's Day and shared his thoughts on women's empowerment. He highlighted the global celebration of women's achievements and struggles for their rights. Acknowledging the crucial role of women employees in CLW's development, he commended their dedicated contributions.

Subsequently, outstanding women employees were honored by Shri Hitendra Malhotra/GM and Smt. Namita Malhotra, President of CLW WWO, for their remarkable performance and dedicated contributions in their workplace.