Three day training program for employees concludes in CLW

Chittaranjan,10.05.2024;

A three-day comprehensive training program organized for the employees of Chittaranjan Locomotive Works (CLW) at Badhwar Hall in the Technical Training Center concluded today on 10.05.2024. A large number of ministerial employees and officers of the Personnel Department and other departments participated in this special training program organized by the Department of Personnel. On this occasion, Shri Amitabh Chaudhary, Principal Chief Personnel Officer and senior officers of the Personnel Department were also present. During the training program, detailed information was given by Shri Deepak Parmar, Professor, NAIR (Mgt) on the subjects like reservation policy, selection calendar, constitutional provisions, appointment, promotion, panel formation etc. Apart from this, information related to HRMS office work and DAR was given on the other two days. On this occasion, the employees present in the session also got answers to the questions from Prof. Parmar in the interactive session. It is hoped that the training enhanced the employees knowledge on establishment matters.
